Hillsong UNITED Adds Six New Dates to Widely Popular “People Tour”

Staples Center and Madison Square Garden Among Sold-Out Venues

Nashville, Tenn. (Jun. 27, 2019) — Hillsong UNITED is expanding their resonating “People Tour” with six new dates in September. Presented by Premier Productions, cities added include Jacksonville, Indianapolis, Milwaukee, Louisville, Oklahoma City and Bossier City. Throughout its nearly 30 date trek across the U.S. and Canada, Hillsong UNITED has sold-out multiple stops including LA’s Staples Center, NYC’s Madison Square Garden and D.C.’s The Anthem.

“We couldn’t be more excited to be announcing new dates for the People Tour,” shares Hillsong UNITED’s JD. “We have been making music and touring for a while now but something feels different about this tour...it’s hard to put into words what God is doing each night as we have been traveling around this great nation, but it’s clear He is moving in the most powerful way we’ve experienced and we don’t want anyone missing out. Hope you can come and join us!”

The tour extension demonstrates a massive year for Hillsong UNITED. Their latest People topped Billboard’s Top Album Sales Chart upon its debut in May.

Tickets for the newly added dates go on sale Fri. Jun. 28. For tickets or more information, visit Hillsong.com/UNITED or PremierProductions.com.

About Hillsong UNITED:

Hillsong UNITED is a multi-award-winning, platinum-selling artist whose chart successes (repeatedly No. 1 on Billboard’s Christian charts and up to No. 2 on Billboard 200) are only bested by the millions of lives they’ve impacted across the globe. Reporting over 50 million people singing from the Hillsong catalogue songs every Sunday, the modest band born from a youth ministry out of Hillsong Church in Australia, touts a reach of over 10 million across all major social network platforms to date, including 2.1 billion minutes garnered from YouTube viewers. Comprised of an evolving, eclectic mix of musicians and songwriters, the band is led by Joel Houston and Taya, names that have become synonymous with Christian radio, dominating airwaves with every new release. Their last four studio albums have each topped the USA Christian chart, with "Zion" and "Empires" charting no. 1 ("Zion" recently also went Gold in the U.S.); “Oceans,” written by Houston and band member Matt Crocker recently went triple platinum in the States, counting 200+ million streams and reigning on top of the Christian songs chart for a record 54 weeks. In studio, on tour or at home, Hillsong UNITED is committed to writing songs that speak truth, create a unique sound and connect people everywhere with God, evident by the success they’ve seen globally. With over 50 countries and six continents visited, Hillsong UNITED continues to sell out arenas and stadiums around the world, including sold-out nights at the Forum, STAPLES Center and The Hollywood Bowl in Los Angeles, The Toyota Center, Oracle Arena, Air Canada Arena, American Airlines Arena (Miami and Dallas), and Red Rocks to scratch the surface. Hillsong UNITED functions from the deep understanding that everything they do is an expression of a really extraordinary God doing what only He can do, through really ordinary people.
